

READY VET GO EXHIBIT

Ready, Vet Go! teaches children the importance of pet ownership and care. In this kid-sized veterinary clinic, families can play and learn the role of veterinarian, groomer, trainer and pet owner. Kids come in, put on their vet coat and stethoscope, grab the clip board and use x-rays and real "instruments" to restore their animal back to health.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Ask your preschooler to SORT the animals into two groups: cats and dogs. Within each group, try to sort them by color or size. (Math + Cognition)

Using the check-in desk, IMAGINE that you are the patient and your preschooler is the receptionist. PARTICIPATE in the check-in procedures and practice talking on the phone, speaking politely and waiting patiently. What kind of emotions would a patient feel at the doctor's office? (Language + Social Emotional)
